

Practice Sheet – Strings (Indexing & Slicing) (Python)

1. Ask the user to enter a string and print its first character.

Input: hello

Output: h

2. Ask the user to enter a string and print its last character.

Input: world

Output: d

3. Ask the user to enter a string and print the second character.

Input: python

Output: y

4. Ask the user to enter a string and print the first 3 characters using slicing.

Input: coding

Output: cod

5. Ask the user to enter a string and print the last 3 characters using slicing.

Input: program

Output: ram

6. Ask the user to enter a string and print characters from index 1 to 4.

Input: python

Output: ytho

7. Ask the user to enter a string and print the string in reverse using slicing.

Input: hello

Output: olleh

8. Ask the user to enter a string and print every second character.

Input: python

Output: pto

9. Ask the user to enter a string and print characters from index 2 to end.

Input: coding
Output: ding

10. Ask the user to enter a string and print characters from start to index 4.

Input: computer
Output: compu